

UK Scenes on London Exhibition Issues

The recent London Stamp Exhibition 2015, held May 13-16 at the Business Design Center, was the focal point for a set of souvenir sheets depicting scenes identified with the United Kingdom as well as London.

Orchestrated by the Inter-Governmental Philatelic Corp., the issues included the following themes:

- Big Ben and The Palace of Westminster—the meeting place of the House of Commons and the House of Lords, the two houses of Parliament of the UK—on a souvenir sheet from Tuvalu.

- Stonehenge, the neolithic prehistoric monument located in Wiltshire, England, on a four-stamp souvenir sheet from Liberia.

- Lighthouses of London, on a six-stamp souvenir sheet from Nevis.

- And a familiar site of a very different sort, British Warblers, on a six-stamp souvenir sheet from the Federated States of Micronesia.

For details on these and other London Stamp Exhibition issues, as well as thousands of other stamps and souvenir sheets with a wide variety of topical themes, please go to the website of Inter-Governmental Philatelic Corp., www.igpc.com.
